

Title IA: Title I Notification Letter

October 27, 2024

Dear Parent or Guardian,

The purpose of this letter is to notify you about important information regarding your child's school and to detail the protocol for measuring the academic performance of public schools in Nevada. The Nevada School Performance Framework (NSPF) is a critical part of the Education Performance System and utilizes a five-star classification system.

In December 2015, the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) was signed into law. Highlights of ESSA include holding all students to high academic standards and ensuring that the lowest-performing schools are provided the appropriate supports for school improvement. Information is provided below about our school.

School Specific Information

Equipo Academy High School has received an index score of 82.5 based on the data from the previous school year. Our school received five stars based on data from the previous school year.

Equipo Academy Middle School has received an index score of 54.5 based on the data from the previous school year. Our middle school received three stars based on the data from the previous school year.

School Specific Actions

Equipo Academy is using allocated Title I funding to:

- Provide Class Advisors to support student behavior and social emotional learning at each grade level
- Staff a Community Health Worker position to check-in with students who are struggling with mental health
- Engage families at events and one-on-one meetings under the leadership of our Dean of Families
- Monitor academic progress through administration of tests such as MAP, Evaluate, and the ACT

For more information about the resources, specific strategies, and tailored school goals, please review the School Performance Plan on your school's website. Additionally, your school's rating report is available at nevadareportcard.nv.gov. Or you may contact Emily Bassier at emily.bassier@equipoacademy.org.

Lastly, parent and family engagement is critical to your child's success. You are welcome and encouraged to become involved in the academic progress of your child's school. Please visit your child's school for information about parent and family engagement opportunities.

Sincerely,

Emily Bassier
Principal
